

Bài nói 1: I have had many lessons and subjects to have M.A degree. I have attended so many lessons in my life but the lessons of English are the ones I really enjoy because of fun and benefit. Mrs.H taught us. The most interesting and amusing lessons was the speaking lessons. We all had to tell about ourselves; family, job, hobby... in front of the whole class. Some did very well but some did not. We had fun during these lessons. We laughed at the wrong and funny pronunciations of our classmates. A few students said nothing, only smiled. We spoke what we could and the teacher corrected our mistakes. Another reason that made me like these lessons so much was I knew more about our classmates and got closer to one another.

Bài nói 2: I have been studying this master course for 2 years and I am going to write my thesis. I intend to finish my paper work in 6 months. In order to finish it on time, I must try my best. I read the books in the library, search for necessary information and knowledge on the Internet, collect the statistics from some businesses, and meet my instructor once a month. Whenever I get stuck, I ask my good classmates or my instructor for help. This plan is very important to me because I have a better qualification, work better and may be I get promoted. More importantly, I am more confident to work more effectively.

Bài nói 3: have just bought an Ipad. It is an Apple. I need to buy it because Ipad is one of the most useful devices in my daily life. First, it is a means of getting materials and information for my work and study. Second, it is very useful and convenient because it helps me work more quickly and effectively such as; typing and printing the documents or storing data, checking emails, downloading necessary materials. Besides, my Ipad is a good means of entertainments, for example listening to music, watching films, reading E-books... whenever I like because I often take it with me.

Bài nói 4: one of my favorite tourist sites is Ban Lac - Mai Chau in Hoa Binh province . It is about 50 kilometers from Ha Noi , we should leave home very early in the morning by car or bus to arrive in Mai Chau at 9 a.m. we can visit Ban Lac in Mai Chau - a famous area or tourists; take many photos of Ban Lac and its residents' daily work. We can walk around Ban Lac to enjoy its beauty and buy local hand-mades. In the evening, we have dinner with residents around a big fire. We eat the local food - 'lam' rice and drink local drink 'can' alcohol. In the late evening, we join in 'sap' dance with young men and women. We sing, dance and have a lot of fun. We surely like this tourist site so much because we will have a great time there. We might come back there in a short time.

Bài nói 5: I was given an Iphone 7 plus on my birthday by my parents last year. It is an Apple. I love and need it so much because it is one of the most useful devices I have ever had in my daily life. First, it is a means of getting materials and information for my work and study. Second, it is very useful and convenient because it helps me work more quickly and effectively such as; typing and printing the documents or storing data, checking emails, downloading necessary materials. Besides, my mobile phone is a good means of entertainments, for example listening to music, watching films, reading E-books... whenever I like because I often take it with me.

Bài nói 6: I am now working for a bank. My job is good, my salary is high, my workmates are friendly and helpful. I have nothing to complain but I would like to work as a tour guide for Red River Tourism Company. It is very famous in travel and famous for its young, smart and professional staff. Working as a tour guide is very tiring but I still like because I can travel to many beautiful places and meet a lot of interesting people. All are good experiences to me. Besides, working condition, payment and promotion in Red River Tourism Company are all very good. That is why I like working for this company.

Bài nói 7: I would like to tell you about Flower Festival which is held Da Lat in January every year. Last year, I flew to Da Lat to enjoy this wonderful cultural festival. The weather in Da Lat during the festival time was very pleasant. It was cold enough for people to wear their luxurious coats, colorful pullovers. I wore my best clothes and some perfume. I had a look at all kinds of flowers, took photos of the best ones, bought some plants and flowers for my balcony. There were some competitions in the festival such as; competitions for the best gardener, the best bed of flowers, the most beautiful kind of flower. The most interesting event was the beauty contest named "The most beautiful flower" to choose the most beautiful girl. I enjoyed this festival so much and hope to come back to Da Lat some time to enjoy this meaningful event

Bài nói 8: I usually go out for some coffee with my friends on Sunday morning. My favorite cafe is Poem in a quiet lane in Tran Hung Dao Street. The café is warmly and elegantly decorated. On each table is always a vase of flowers. On the walls are many large and beautiful paintings by famous painters. The coffee is very good and tasty. The servants are young, and I like to go here to enjoy coffee. It is not just coffee but a variety of music played in the café: pop, classic, semi-classic, jazz...and the most wonderful cafe where I can see children play and have fun outside. Have you ever heard about it? If not, please go there and enjoy yourself.

Bài nói 9: Last Sunday evening, I myself held a great birthday party at home for my mother. I did the shopping in the morning. I bought many things: food, drinks, vegetables, fruit, red wine and a big cake. She invited her 5 friends. I cooked a good meal for them. I made beef steak, pizza, spring rolls and salads. I arranged a big vase of roses and the party table. All looked great. I helped my mother put on some make-up and her best dress. She and her friends both enjoyed food, wine and talked about their good memories at university. After the meal, they sang their favorite songs in chorus. Then, they enjoyed the birthday cake with tea and coffee. The party was over at 11 p.m. They all were very delighted. I felt very happy with what I did for my mother on her birthday. Her favorite.
